

① to make predictions about the future will

① to make general prediction

② when we decided to do something at the moment of speaking

③ to talk about the future when we consider it to be an objective truth.

16.02

zero conditionals

if + present simple ; ... present simple

① to talk about situations that are generally or always true.

② to talk about possible and probable situations in the future and their consequences.

✓ 24.02

builder

fashion designer

firefighter

journalist

Librarian

mechanic

nurse

plumber
police officers
receptionist
shop assistant

ref

02.03

have to / don't have to ⊕ Police officers have to wear uniform.

⊖ Teachers don't have to wear uniform.

① Do police officers have to wear uniform.

Use when things are necessary or obligatory.

must / mustn't

⊕ You must switch off your phone in class.

⊖ You mustn't use your phone when driving.

Use to talk about rules/prohibitions should / shouldn't

⊕ You should arrive on time.

⊖ You shouldn't be late.

① Should I wait outside

Use to give and ask for recommendations

16.03

second conditional

If + past simple, ... would / wouldn't + infinitive

① to talk about imaginary and improbable situations

Ex: If I found money in the street, I would give it to the police.

② no use If I were you, I'd ... to give advice

24.03

feelings

afraid	anger
angry	boredom
bored	excitement
excited	fear
happy	happiness
lonely	loneliness
shy	shyness

02.02

drought

flood

global warming

greenhouse effect

melt

nuclear disaster

ozone layer

pollution

recycle

10.02

different uses of get

get = become - Swimmers are getting cold get = receive - I got your email yesterday get = obtain/buy - Last week she got a book about pollution get = arrive - What time will you get to the meeting get = bring - Canyon got me the pen that is on the desk

be going to

① to talk about plans and intentions in the future